

Progression of Knowledge

Humanism

Humanism (Cycle A)

Year R	Year 1	Year 2/3	Year 4/5	Year 6
				Children will know that <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Humanists believe that finding happiness is one of the most important things in life - the time to be happy is now.• Humanist believe that there is no one single way to be happy.• Supporting other people to find happiness can also make us happy.• Humanists believe that everyone should have the freedom to pursue what makes them happy as long as they cause no harm.

- Humanists believe that everyone should be tolerant of those whose choices are different to our own.

Key Vocabulary

Autonomy
Equality
Diversity
Tolerance
Freedom
The Happy Human

(Cycle B)
Year R	Year 1	Year 2/3	Year 4/5	Year 6
		(Term 3) Children will know that <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Humanism isn't a religion, but a way of thinking and living. • Humanists do not believe in God. • They believe that this is our only life. • Humanists believe we should be good to one another • The Golden Rule means treating others as you would want to be treated. 		Children will know that <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Humanists believe that finding happiness is one of the most important things in life - the time to be happy is now. • Humanist believe that there is no one single way to be happy. • Supporting other people to find happiness can also make us happy. • Humanists believe that everyone should have the freedom to pursue what makes them happy as long as they cause no harm.

Key Vocabulary

The Golden Rule
Consequences
Empathy

(Term 4)

Children will know that

- Humanists have no place of worship. Instead, they take pleasure in both the natural wonder of the world and human creations.
- Many humanists have shared moral values - kindness, compassion, fairness, justice and honesty.
- Humanists do not have special festivals, however

- Humanists believe that everyone should be tolerant of those whose choices are different to our own.

Key Vocabulary

Autonomy
Equality
Diversity
Tolerance
Freedom
The Happy Human

many humanists
will celebrate
cultural occasions.

- Human relationships are important, particularly the need for love and support from other people in our lives.

Key vocabulary

Moral values

Cultural

Relationships

